Explorers Lewis and Clark had to adapt. While they had prepared to find a waterway to the Pacific Ocean, instead they found themselves in the Rocky Mountains. You too may feel that you are leading in a cultural context you were not expecting. You may even feel that your training holds you back more often than it carries you along. Drawing from his extensive experience as a pastor and consultant, Tod Bolsinger brings decades of expertise in guiding churches and organizations through uncharted territory. He offers a combination of illuminating insights and practical tools to help you reimagine what effective leadership looks like in our rapidly changing world. If you're going to scale the mountains of ministry, you need to leave behind canoes and find new navigational tools.

Throughout 2020, we will seek to learn from Tod's book, Canoeing the Mountains, how best to be the church in an ever changing culture. Copies of the book are available for purchase at the Presbytery office for $12. All Presbytery Commissioners, members, and church Sessions are encouraged to read the book and join the conversation.

*There will be an optional
time for extended
conversation with Tod
from 4:00-5:30 p.m.*
